FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

MICHAEL LEE SHAW, ID # 54687-177,) Petitioner,)
vs.)	No. 3:20-CV-3283-K (BH)
)
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
Respondent.)	Referred to U.S. Magistrate Judge¹

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION

Before the Court is the Motion Requesting the Court’s Intervention Pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Prisons “FBOP” Via Designation Sentence Computation Center “D.S.C.C.” Misinterpretation [sic] of the Court’s Recognized and Ordered Time Served Credits, received on October 18, 2020 (doc. 3). Based on the relevant filings and applicable law, the case should be DISMISSED for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court.

I. BACKGROUND

Michael Lee Shaw (Petitioner), a federal inmate in the Federal Medical Center Fort Worth, filed a challenge to the calculation of his time served in federal custody in his underlying criminal case. (See doc. 3.) The filing was construed as a petition for habeas corpus relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 by order dated October 28, 2020. (See doc. 4.) By Notice of Deficiency and Order dated November 2, 2020, Petitioner was notified that he had neither paid the $5 filing fee nor submitted a motion to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”), and that he had not filed his § 2241 petition on the proper form. (See doc. 5.) He was ordered to file his § 2241 petition on the proper form, and to either pay the fee or file an IFP motion, within thirty days. (Id.) The notice specifically stated that a failure to comply with the notice could result in the dismissal of the petition for failure to prosecute or to follow court orders. Well more than thirty days from the date of that notice have passed, but Petitioner has not paid the fee, filed an IFP motion, filed a completed § 2241 form, or filed anything else in this case.

¹ By Special Order No. 3-251, this habeas case has been automatically referred for findings and recommendation.

II. INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure permits a court to dismiss sua sponte an action for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court. McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988). This authority flows from a court's inherent power to control its docket, prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases, and avoid congested court calendars. Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629-31 (1962). Here, Petitioner was given thirty days to either pay the filing fee or file an IFP motion, and to file a completed form, and the notice specifically warned that failure to comply could result in the dismissal of his petition. He still has not complied with the notice and order or otherwise responded. Because he failed to comply with the notice of deficiency and order within thirty days, his petition should be dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute or follow orders of the court.

III. RECOMMENDATION

The petition should be dismissed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) without prejudice for want of prosecution or failure to follow orders of the court, unless Petitioner either pays the $5 filing fee or files an IFP motion, and files a completed § 2241 form within the fourteen-day time frame for objecting to this recommendation, or by some other deadline set by the Court.

SIGNED this 21st day of May, 2021.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL/OBJECT

A copy of these findings, conclusions and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of these findings, conclusions and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Servs. Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
